Saver	Jeff	Invited Speaker/Faculty	Yes	Multiple								Dr. Saver is an employee of the University of California. The University of California has patent rights in retrieval devices for stroke. Dr. Saver has served as an unpaid site investigator in multicenter trials run by Medtronic and Stryker for which the UC Regents received payments on the basis of clinical trial contracts for the number of subjects enrolled. Dr. Saver has received funding for services as a scientific consultant regarding trial design and conduct to Medtronic/Covidien, Stryker, Neuravi, BrainsGate, Pfizer, Squibb, Boehringer Ingelheim (prevention only), ZZ Biotech, and St. Jude Medical. Dr. Saver serves as an unpaid consultant to Genentech advising on the design and conduct of the PRISMS trial; neither the University of California nor Dr. Saver received any payments for this voluntary service. The University of California has released the Rankin Focused Assessment for free use under a Creative Commons license, and has copyright for
